Student Expectation #5
GENERAL SCORING GUIDE
Develop competency in the use of information and technology

SCORE	DESCRIPTION
4	✔ Student consistently provides an accurate explanation with appropriate facts, concepts, or principles which reflect thorough and careful research and understanding. ✔ Student proposes a use of technology that provides a unique solution to an unmet need and reflects a high level of creativity. ✔ Student reviews the process or product at a considerable level of detail using information and technology to make a high-quality product likely.
3	✔ Student consistently provides an accurate explanation with appropriate facts, concepts, or principles with no significant errors. ✔ Student proposes a use of technology that provides a good answer to an unmet need. ✔ Student revises the process or product using information and technology in ways that serve the purpose of the process or product.
2	✔ Student sporadically explains but misapplies or omits some facts, concepts, or principles important for understanding. ✔ Student proposes a use of technology that will not adequately satisfy the unmet need. ✔ Student revises the process or product using information and technology but attempts to address only the most obvious difficulties.
1	✔ Student rarely, if ever communicates written information by providing a clear main idea or theme with supporting detail. ✔ Student proposes a use of technology that has little or no relation to the unmet need. ✔ Student makes few, if any, attempts at revision of the process or Product using information and technology.